

Widcombe, You're a Jewel!

Chorus

Widcombe you're a jewel. | Widcombe you're a dear!

G C G

Widcombe you're my heart's delight lat any time of year

C G Em Am D7 G

Verse 1

Froml high above on Widcombe Hilll Macaulay gazes down

C G D7 G

At the woods and wolds of Widcombe and the lpires of Sulis town

C G Em A7 D7

From lRainbow Wood to Beechen Cliff he has al view so fine

G C G

It llifts the heart and who could part from lWidcombe in her prime |

C G Em Am D7 G D7

Verse 2

The wat'ring holes of Widcombe are known from far and near

For there's no place quite like Widcombe Mall to have yourself some cheer

In the Ram or in the Royal Oak or the good old Ring o' Bells

In the White Hart Inn it's not a sin to mingle with the swells (Cho)

Verse 3

The Lansdown lass is lovely, and the Greenway girl is grand

But the winsome wench of Widcombe is known throughout the land

For gentlemen who come to Bath to take the healing waters

It's a privilege to cross the bridge for Widcombe's darling daughters. (Cho)

Verse 4

Oh the common folk of Widcombe can mingle with the best

In the street good Lady Margaret distributes her largesse

She switches on the Christmas lights to give us all good cheer

And on New Year's Day the Mummers play to welcome in the year. (Cho)

Verse 5

Old Rossiter's a churlish chap who only goes one way

Which leaves for us in Widcombe Mall a cruel price to pay

But Widcombe folk are sturdy stock, we won't admit defeat

We'll never rest till traffic's pest is driven from our street. (Cho)

Verse 6

If you come down to Widcombe Mall some afternoon in June

You'll hear the sounds of happy folk and a merry mummers tune

With sky so bright and feelings light, the air so full of cheer

It's not surprising Widcombe's rising higher every year. (Cho x2)